WOOD AND COAL. MEDICINAL

DR. TUTT'S

IN 25 CTS. AND $1 BOTTLES.

Its properties are Demulcent, Nutritive, Bal-samic, Southing and Healing. Combining all these qualities, it is the most effective LUNG BALSAM ever effored to sufferers from pulmonary discases.

Dr. J. F. HAYWOOD, of New York, voluntarily indorses it. Read what he says:
New York, Sept. 19, 1877.
Dr. Tutt: Dear Sir—During this year I treated nine hundred cases of lung diseases. In the lower wards of the city the cases were of a very severe type. It was there my attention was called to Tutt's Expectorant, and I confess my surprise at its wonderful power. During a prac-tice of twenty years I have never known a medicine to act as promptly and with such happy effects. It instantly subdued the most violent fits of coughing, and invariably cured the disease in a few days. I cheerfully endorse it as the best lung medicine I ever used. J. FRANCIS HAY WOOD, M.D.

A NEWSPAPER PUBLISHER WRITES

Office Evening News, Augusta, Ga.
Dr. Tutt: Dear Sir—My little son was attacked with pneumonia last winter, which left him with a violent cough that lasted till within a month since, for the cure of which I am indebted to your valuable Expectorant. I had tried most everything recommended, but none did any good until I used your Expectorant, one With many thanks, I am yours truly,

JOHN M. WEIGLE.

HAD TERRIBLE NIGHT SWEATS.

Memphis, February 11, 1871. Dr. Tutt: Sir—I have been suffering for hear-ly two years with a severe cough. When I commenced taking your Expectorant I was reduced to one hundred and sixteen pounds in weight. I had tried almost everything; had terrible night sweats. I have taken half dozen bottles. The night sweats have left me, the cough has disappeared, and I have gained fifteen pounds in flesh. I recommend it to all my friends. With great respect,
OLIVER RICE.

IMPORTANT QUESTIONS.

Reader, have you caught a cold? Are you unable to raise the oblegm? Have you an irritation in the throat? A sense of oppression on the lungs, with short breath? Do you have a fit of coughing on lying down? A sharp pain now and then in a region of the heart, shoulders and back? IF SO, OUR ADVICE IS to take and back? IF SO, OUR ADVICE IS to take at once a dose of Tutt's Expectorant; you will soon be able to raise the phlegm. In an hour repest the Expectorant, place a hot iron to the feet take two of Tutt's Pills. You will soon fall into a pleasant sleep and wake up in the morning cough gone, lungs working freely; easy breathing and the bowels moving in a natural manner. To prevent a return of these symptoms use the Expectorant several days.

Special contracts will be made with yearly ad-been numerous. Among the jewelry presented by members of the Imperial family is noticeable first, that of the Emperor and Empress. It is a dialem made in the form of a wreath of roses and rose leaves and composed of diamonds and sapphires. On viewing it, it is hard to say which is more admirable, the size and splendor of the jewels or the artistic perfection of the workmarship. Then there is a crown about five inches high, made of the most superb brilliants, which are set in such a fashion as to make the crown look as if our out of one stone. The necklace belonging to this is composed of brilliants of the largest and rarest kind. These two articles are presented by the Archduchess' mether, Elizabeth. A superb piece of art is the hair pin and brooch which Archduke Albrechet gave his niece. They are of dismonds set so as to resemble edelweiss Conspicuous among the mess of jewelry is the present of Archduchess Marie Renier. It is a diadem resembling a laurel wreath and composed entirely right side of the corsage, run down the same side of the robe and following the train are lost in the lace garniture on the left side. Another robe is composed of light blue silk embroidered with flowers in velvet. The garniture consists of garlands of ght blue ostrich feathers and real points d'antique lace. The waist is buttoned by charmingly set diamond buttons. The right side of the corsage and the sleeves are adorned by bouquets of yellow roses. Furthermore, here is a heavy white faille robe with real bond lace and a volant composed of white French pearls as large as peas; a black velvet dress with little embroidered bouquets of roses and very tastefully trimmed with pale pink satin and real lace; a pink faille dress made up in the Spanish style, profusely adorned with Spanish gold lace; a soirce robe of dark blue velvet trimmed with lace, and finally a toilet of white Indian cashmere, richly trimmed point d'antique lace and tiny gold bells. Among the dresses which will delight the Spanish court, two are especially beautiful. One is La Valliere silk rep, with the front of the skirt and bodice in royal blue satio, the trimming a mixture of gold and silver braids. The other is China blue velours frappe, mixed with opal satin and ornamented with seed pearl fringe and silver lace, the collar being entirely teaux, which are very beautiful. There is one mantelet of heavy black satic with real black lace and heavy bead trimmings, which is set off by marabou feathers. The pocket handkerchiefs are of pine apple lawn, with the arms of Austria and Spain worked in gold thread, and the peignoirs are of white or very delicate tinted taffetas, trimmed with point d'Alencon. The extensive collection of hats shows all modern fashions, and each one corresponds, so far as color and trimming are concerned, to a toilette. Of shoes the bride has forty-eight of diamonds. The preparations for the wedding excited Vinns almost as much as Madrid. The trousseau was on exhibition for several days in the palace of Archduke Albrecht before it was sent to Madrid. Nineteen dresses were exhibited, each of them a masterpicce of the dress making art. First there was noticeable a robe for wear at the renunciation. It is made of heavy pale pick faille. The corsage is short, cut square, and provided with short soirce sleeves. A tablier of red satin in set in the front of the skirt. This lablier is richly trimmed with Brussels lace, narrow satin volunts and airy pink illusion. The train, which is three yards long, falls in broad, rich folds from the waist, and is without any trimming. A garniture of broad Brussels lace, parrow satin volunts and pick illusion separates it from the tablier. Bouquets of roses of all shades and tiots covers the of silver lace. The royal bride is well supplied with manpairs, and each pair corresponds to a toilet.

Presents to the Bride. The presents to King Alfonso's bride have
